Timeline Prior to Departure	Cancellation Fee Payable	Refund Amount
More than 150 days (5+months) prior to departure	10% of tour fare (Initial Deposit forfeited)	Balance of any excess funds paid to date
121 to 150 days (4 to 5 months) prior to departure	40% of tour fare	Balance of any excess funds paid to date

60 days or fewer (within 2 months) prior to departure	100% of tour fare	No refund

2. Late Payments and Failure to Meet Deadlines

- To secure the complex logistics of cross-border train tickets and accommodations, all payment deadlines must be strictly honoured.
- Strict Deadlines: The 60% payment milestone is due exactly 4 months before departure, and the 100% final payment milestone is due exactly 2 months before departure.
- Late Payment Penalty: If a payment is not received by 11:59 PM (Malaysia Time) on the stipulated due date, a strict late penalty of RM 100 per day will be applied to the outstanding balance.
- Maximum Grace Period: Participants are permitted a maximum grace period of three (3) calendar days from the original deadline to clear both the outstanding milestone payment and the accumulated daily late fees.
- Automatic Cancellation: If the full milestone payment plus all accumulated late fees (up to RM 300) are not received by 11:59 PM on the third day of the grace period, the booking will be immediately and automatically cancelled without further notice.
- Forfeiture of Funds: In the event of an automatic cancellation due to non-payment after the grace period, all prior payments made—including the 10% booking confirmation deposit and any subsequent milestone payments—are entirely forfeited and strictly non-refundable.

3. Cancellation and Postponement by Pure Odyssey

- Pure Odyssey reserves the right to cancel, postpone, or alter the tour under specific operational conditions, unforeseen external disruptions, or failure to meet minimum group capacity.
- Failure to Meet Minimum Group Size:
 - The execution of the Trans-Siberia tour is subject to achieving a viable minimum group size minimum of 10 pax.
 - If the minimum participant threshold is not met, Pure Odyssey reserves the right to cancel the tour no later than 90 days prior to the departure date (on or before 25 May 2027).
 - In the event of a cancellation due to under-capacity, participants will receive a 100% full refund of all payments made to Pure Odyssey, or the option to transfer funds towards a rescheduled departure or another Pure Odyssey expedition without penalty.
- Force Majeure and Geopolitical Disruptions:
 - Given the cross-border nature of the itinerary traversing Russia and Mongolia, Pure Odyssey reserves the right to postpone, reschedule, or cancel the expedition due to events of Force Majeure.
 - Force Majeure events include, but are not limited to: armed conflict, government travel advisories or sanctions, international airspace/flight closures, rail corridor suspensions, border closure or restricted bilateral entry protocols, natural disasters, severe epidemics, or major civil unrest.
 - Postponement: If the tour is postponed due to Force Majeure, all payments received will be converted into a non-expiring travel credit voucher valid for the rescheduled tour dates or future expeditions.
 - Definitive Cancellation: If the tour must be cancelled definitively without an option to reschedule, Pure Odyssey will refund all money received, less non-recoverable third-party costs already committed to suppliers (e.g., issued airline tickets, non-refundable Russian Railways train berths, hotel deposits, or incurred visa processing fees).
- Operational Route Adjustments and In-Progress Itinerary Changes:
 - Pure Odyssey reserves the right to modify scheduled train routes, hotel selections, transport providers, or excursion sequences where technical delays, rail schedule changes, or local conditions necessitate adjustments.
 - Such adjustments do not constitute grounds for participant-initiated cancellation, refund requests, or compensation, provided that equivalent standard accommodation and transport are maintained.
- Limitation of Liability:
 - In all instances of cancellation or postponement by Pure Odyssey, the operator's liability is strictly limited to the refund or credit of payments directly paid to Pure Odyssey.

- Trip cancellation and curtailment coverage (covering medical emergencies, illness, or personal crises preventing departure).
- Emergency medical evacuation and hospitalization coverage within Southern Africa.
- Baggage delay, loss, and personal liability.
